Library News

Thank you to our students and families who have demonstrated care to Others by donating books on 'International Book Giving Day.' The books are on their way to Bundaberg North State School in Queensland. Families in this school community were severely affected by the recent floods. I have made contact with grateful staff who eagerly await our donation. Some of our books may find themselves on their school library shelves, or perhaps in homes of families who lost many of their possessions.

MORNING SUPERVISION

There is no teacher supervision of students in the mornings until 8.45am. Students are required to sit quietly in the quad until this time. We would appreciate, that unless your child travels by bus, they do not arrive at school before this time. The bell rings for morning assembly at 9.10am.

THANK YOU
